

Permission to Add Photographs to COPH Collection

The Center for Oral and Public History would like permission to add your photograph/photograph collection to our digital archive. Allowing us to reach users in this way does not represent a relinquishing of your intellectual property rights to your photographs. This is just a single purpose request, and individuals who may wish to publish or somehow profit from use of the materials would be bound by law to secure your permission. Each item in the digital archive will carry a copyright statement to this effect.

List images here. (Use additional sheet of paper if necessary.) Please also create a description of each image (Photograph Log and Description)

I, _____, grant do not grant permission to the Center for Oral and Public History, California State University, Fullerton, to display digital reproductions of the images mentioned above from the _____ Collection, including display on the Internet for use by researchers. In granting this limited permission, my intention is not to surrender my intellectual property rights to materials in the collection, but only to promote scholarship by providing electronic copies for personal study and not-for-profit educational uses.

I, _____, grant do not grant permission to the Center for Oral and Public History, California State University, Fullerton, to the non-exclusive use of my images (listed here within) associated with my oral history and/or the project with which it is associated.
